

The Study on the Book of Jeremiah
Week #3: The Anatomy at Hand (Part 2)
Sunday, October 13, 2024 (PM Service)

Introduction:

- The God who committed never to leave us is the same God who committed never to leave us in sin.

1. The Anatomy of Divorce (Jer. 3:8)

a. A. We Forget What God Has Done for Us (Jer. 2:5-8)

- i. If the Word of God is not prominent in people's minds, they forget that God has decided to relate to people through His Word.
- ii. The blessed person is the one who obeys God's instruction.
- iii. Neglecting the Word is not the end of the church. It is the beginning of the end.

2. We Find Our Satisfaction in Something Else

- a. Leaders who do not represent God's Word to God's people are facilitators of ultimate separation between God and His people.

3. God Files for Divorce (Jer. 3:8)

- a. God wants a Divorce, but even though He wants it, He will not get it.

4. God Will Not Leave Us Alone (Jer. 3:1-5)

- a. Why can God not divorce Israel?
 - i. He made a covenant to always be with them.
 - ii. If He divorced them, He is bound by His own law and could not "remarry" them.

Conclusion:

- When we see our only sustenance is God, we will see that He is all we need to begin with.
