Views from the Youth Min. for April

The theme of obedience is all throughout the entirety of the Bible. From the Garden of Eden to the Great Commission, we have been commanded by God to obey Him. Jesus made it clear to us in John 14:15, "If you love me, you will keep my commandments." Obedience shouldn't be something that burdens us and weighs us down. It should come as a result of our love for Jesus. The deeper we know Christ, the more we should desire to obey him. We know that salvation is by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone. Obedience isn't how we earn salvation, but it does show that our hearts have been transformed. Paul makes it clear in Ephesians 2:8-10 when he states that we are saved by grace, and that grace produces works in us that show we have received new life.

Obedience is an act of worship that shows we honor God and desire to pursue Him. It is simply a result of the pursuit we have for Jesus. May we be a people who are actively pursuing Jesus daily. Our desire should be to be obedient to the One who gave His life for us, trusting that He will equip us, guide us, and bless us as we seek to live a life that points others to Him, so that He receives the glory He deserves.

May God Bless You and Keep You

“The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.” (Matthew 20:28)

Such a great verse about our Savior, Jesus Christ.

Person of Christ – “The Son of man came.” Both the deity and humanity of Christ are stated here in these words. The deity of Christ is stated in the word “came,” for “came” says Christ already had to exist. The pre-existence of Jesus Christ testifies of His deity. The humanity of Christ is seen in the title “Son of man.” In coming to earth, Christ humbled Himself and became a man in order to be our Savior.

Purpose of Christ – “To minister.” Christ came to earth to minister. Christ did not come primarily to curse, judge, or destroy. He came primarily to help us, to rescue us from the condemnation of our sins. Those who reject His ministry will indeed discover Christ as a judge, but that was not why He came primarily. His primary purpose was to minister to our soul’s need.

Price for Christ – “Give his life.” Christ paid the supreme sacrifice to help man. He gave His life that we might have life. The fact that He had to give His life to save us tells us something about the greatness of our sin. We belittle sin and play down its seriousness. But sin is so terrible that it required nothing less than Christ to die for us.

Provision in Christ – “Ransom for sin.” Our spiritual debt because of our sin is so great that we cannot pay it ourselves. But Christ provided the ransom for our sin by His death on the cross. His blood, which was shed at Calvary, is the only thing that will pay the ransom. This provision in Christ is available for everyone. However, many folk will die and go to hell for eternity because they have rejected this ransom for their soul.

For His Glory,
Jon Vanlandingham
