Views from the Youth Min. for June

Influence is something each of us have, but how are we using it? Being a Godly influence on those around us begins with a transformed life through Jesus. We are called to be salt and light (Matthew 5:13-16), influencing the world around us through our faithful obedience to the Father. It's not a place of power, but a place of pointing those we encounter to Jesus. Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to everyone who believes...". Because of the Gospel, we now possess the power of the Holy Spirit to be a strong influence for Christ.

Many times, we think people who have great influence are the ones who are flashy and have a great following. Often, the quiet, faithful witness for Jesus has much greater influence than the one who is flashy. In 1 Timothy 4:12, we are encouraged to set an example by the way we speak, the way we love, and the way we are faithful to the Father. It's all about glorifying Him! Our influence should draw others to salvation. We have been entrusted with the message of Jesus Christ to go and share the Good News. It's easy to complain about the world around us and what is taking place, but the change can happen with us through our influence. Who can you influence today?

The Train Follows the Engine

Trains seem to be fascinating to children. Maybe it is because of their size or power or the noisiness, but it is impressive to stand and watch them, as they pass by all the way from the engine to the caboose. At times, we as kids would count the cars, and we would always try to get the engineer's attention so that they might blow their whistle at us. One thing I learned early on was that regardless of how many cars or what they were carrying; they all were going where the engine was going. The individual cars could not decide to take a right turn at the next crossing or head off down into the woods or down some back road. Why? Well, for one thing, the train's ability to travel and deliver is a system that only works when they are together. Another thing is that they have no power whatsoever on their own. Power is in the engine.

Paul, writing to the church at Corinth in 1 Corinthians 11:1, encouraged people to follow him as he followed Christ. That is a pretty bold statement. The key is not just to follow Paul; the key is for Paul and the entire church to join in following Jesus. To those squabbling saints at Corinth, he sought to help them to understand that their spiritual power and their spiritual achievements would only be found as they unite behind a purpose and in the strength of the living Christ Himself. Paul was not front and center; Jesus was, and as Paul followed Christ, he called on them to help to get the job done. They all, were needed. If Jesus is our leader, it must be understood that He is the engine and I suppose you could include the engineer. We should get behind Him.

For His Glory,
Jon Vanlandingham
