Does anyone participate in "Spring Cleaning"? Out with the old and in with the new! We often clean up our environment; our house, vehicle, and so on. This really creates a good question - How often do we regularly cleanse our hearts as God has called us to do?

2 Corinthians 5:17 reads, "Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come." Just as Springtime is about renewal, we are to become a new creation in Christ! This sort of cleaning is not just preventive maintenance; it is a complete fresh reboot. This is true repentance that leads to Christ-filled renewal. If there is anything hindering you from a deeper walk with the Lord, pray that the Holy Spirit reveals it and removes it! Listen to the Lord and obey His Word so that you are able to walk with Him in freedom.

As God leads you, make new steps and changes in your life. Confess what needs to be confessed. Repent of what needs repentance. Ask the Spirit to abide within your life. Replace worry with Scripture. Replace distraction with devotion. Replace resentment with forgiveness. Replace comparison with gratitude. Replace apathy with discipline. Where God leads you, go!

God Bless!
Bro. Hudson

Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and everyone that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. – 1 John 4:7

The word love is mentioned dozens of times in the book of 1 John. Primarily he speaks about three kinds of love: God's love for us, our love for God, and our love for one another. The concept of love is so important to John that three times he discusses it in this letter. In chapter 4, John comes to the apex of what love is. He traces the stream of love to its source: "God is love."

Love is not like other subjects. It cannot be understood and then practiced. It can only be understood by practice. It is more like measles than math. John affirms that the essence and evidence of Christian living is love. We are commanded to love one another. Just as light radiates from the sun, love radiates from God's very nature. God's love for us is motivated by who He is, not by who we are.

Two things about are said to be true about Christians who practice love: 1) they have been "born of God," and 2) they know God. The presence of love in your life is evidence of your Christian experience. Of course, John does not mean that anybody in the world who has a feeling of love for somebody else is therefore a Christian. John is talking about the relationship between God and believers.

God's love produces genuine change in us. When we respond to God's love, we are able to become loving people. You cannot command unsaved people to love others. But you can command Christian love. As one who has been born again, I now have the capacity to love. Though I am tempted to act like my old unsaved self, as a Christian I recognize I have no right to live like an unsaved person. I must live like the Christian I am.

Flowood Baptist, I believe we do many things well. Let us continue to practice loving one another.

For His Glory,
Bro. Jon
