A Message for God's People

Picture the scene of the Jews as they gather on the eastern side of the Jordan River. Moses is now an old man and about to die. Knowing the enemies his people would face as they enter Canaan, he gives this amazing promise in Deuteronomy 31:6:

“Be strong and courageous; fear not, nor be afraid of them: your God is the one who will go with you; he will not leave you or abandon you.”

When Moses says, “Don’t be afraid of them,” he’s talking about the pagan nations surrounding the Jews. The list includes the Hivites, the Hittites, the Girgashites, the Amorites, the Edomites, the Moabites, the Jebusites, the Perizzites, and the Philistines. That’s a daunting list of bad guys.

For the moment, let’s focus on what the Jews had to do first. They must cross the Jordan River. But what’s on the other side? The Promised Land and the enemy. They crossed at a spot not far from Jericho with its enormous double walls, reminding them they must fight to obtain all God had promised them. But this is not unusual. When Paul wrote his first letter to the Corinthians, he offered this comment on the situation in Ephesus: “A great door for effective work has opened to me, and there are many who oppose me” (1 Corinthians 16:9). That’s always the case, isn’t it? Opportunities and enemies often go together. One man put it this way: “The door of opportunity swings on the hinges of opposition.”

The Jews faced a math problem. If you stacked up the armies, there were way too many bad guys for them to fight. They were doomed to defeat. But the question is always, whose side are you on?

If you are with God, you can’t lose. It’s as simple as that. Yes, there will be blood, toil, tears and sweat. But when you fight with God on your side, you cannot lose.

That’s the message to God’s people.

For His Glory,
Bro. Jon
